Would you like to work with green transition and business development in Indonesia?

The Embassy of Denmark in Indonesia is looking to hire a Local Energy Advisor (Commercial) to join our Embassy per 1 August 2021. The main task will be to drive business development and engage local as well as Danish companies and stakeholders to prioritize the Indonesian and Southeast Asian market.

The position

We are looking for a dynamic, high-performing, self-motivating, creative and sales-driven energy advisor that can drive and spark the interest of the Indonesian and Southeast Asian markets for Danish businesses within the energy sector. You will be part of the “green” cluster of the embassy team which further include the strategic G2G cooperation on Energy as well as the strategic G2G cooperation on Circular Economy and Waste.

You have a strong commercial mind-set and interests in promoting Danish solutions within renewable energy and energy efficiency. You are able to identify, develop and drive larger business concepts and eager to be part of a busy and dedicated team at the Embassy of Denmark in Jakarta and among colleagues in the Southeast Asia region.

We expect you to engage with both private and governmental local stakeholders and to drive the complete sales and execution process in the Indonesian and Southeast Asian market (in collaboration with your “cluster” and regional colleagues) by linking your knowledge of the market opportunities and demands for Danish strongholds and solutions within the green transition. One of the specific tasks will include the establishment of an Indonesia – Denmark Energy Joint Platform for promoting commercial relationship among public and private stakeholders in Indonesia.

Qualifications

- Preferably a Master in Science and Industrial Engineering, Business and Investment Administration, Economics, or other commercially relevant education.
- Minimum 3 years' work experience within the Energy Sector in Indonesia and preferably with renewables and green transition. Knowledge of Danish strongholds within green technologies is an advantage, but not a must.
- Working experience from both private companies and governmental institutions will be an advantage.
- Strong ability to identify business opportunities and develop business concepts.
- Ability to think out of the box and kick-start new ideas and take them to the next level.
- Fluency in Bahasa Indonesia and English, both written and spoken. Strong analytic skills a preference.
- A great communicator and experienced in building strong and lasting customer relations.
- A team player (and customer oriented).

What we offer:

An international, exciting and dynamic work environment with travel opportunities in Indonesia as well as business promotion travels to Denmark and Malaysia (the Danish Embassy in Jakarta is also side accredited to Malaysia from 1 June 2021). Collaboration with Danish sector specialists and commercial colleagues at the Danish embassies in Southeast Asia as well as Indonesian stakeholders that together with you will strengthen the understanding of the challenges and investment opportunities within the green transition in emerging economies.

The Embassy is offering a two-year contract with possible extension. Your salary will reflect your qualifications, relevant experience and proven work-related results. We would like you to start at 1 August 2021 or soon thereafter.

Application and recruitment process:

Please send your application (cover letter, CV, proof of relevant education, recommendations and 2-3 references with contact details - no other documents required) by e-mail to: Embassy of Denmark, E-mail: jktambvacancy@um.dk - marked 'Energy Advisor (Commercial) and your name' before Friday 14 May 2021.
